

Online and Offline Anti Illiteracy Campaign for the Disabled

---Taking Inner Mongolia Radio & TV University as an example

Zhao Yubao

- Illiteracy is one of the social phenomena caused by the unbalanced development of society, politics, economy and culture, which directly affects the production and human progress. Therefore, Anti Illiteracy Campaign is regarded as an important strategy by all countries to improve quality of the nation and life and enhance the national strength.

Introduction to Anti Illiteracy Campaign for the disabled

- The CDPF(China Disabled Persons' Federation)formulated the Action Plan to Combat Illiteracy Among Disabled Youths and Adults of the 13th Five-Year Plan, and implemented Anti Illiteracy Campaign with the help of the national disabled persons' federations.
- Inner Mongolia Radio & TV University and the Inner Mongolia Disabled Persons' Federation jointly implement this plan in the Inner Mongolia.

Importance of Anti Illiteracy Campaign for the disabled

- The Anti Illiteracy Campaign is an urgent need to win the fight against poverty and a weak link to be improved to achieve the goal of building a well-off society.

Online and offline Anti Illiteracy Campaign for the disabled

- Inner Mongolia Radio & TV University and Inner Mongolia Disabled Persons' Federation takes the lead to drive all cities' disabled persons' federations to jointly implement literacy programs. Radio and TV universities in various cities can carry out creative and personalized education activities by learning from each other's good experience. Combining Anti Illiteracy Campaign with technical training and recreational activities have a better learning effect than massed learning every day.

Build distance instructional resources

- (1) Schools compile illustrated textbooks in Chinese for disabled people. Mongolian literacy textbooks are prepared for Mongolian disabled students.
- (2) Hire a professional team engaged in the production of teaching resources to produce video (animation) courses.
- (3) A series of microcourses will be produced

Conclusion

- The online and offline Anti Illiteracy Campaign of Inner Mongolia Radio & TV University is influencing and changing the life of disabled people in Inner Mongolia. They feel the warmth of society and seek a better life. Anti Illiteracy Campaign enhances the self-esteem and confidence of students with disabilities.